

AMRI Justice Desk Lenten Reflection Series

8–22 March 2017

Lent is time for fasting and reflection. The AMRI Justice Desk is inviting you to join us for three mornings of reflection this Lent.

You are invited to reflect on what is the kind of fast that pleases God.

PROGRAMME

Wednesday, 8th March: “God is not stingy” (John 3:34)

Dr. Margaret Daly-Denton

Margaret is an internationally published composer of church music and a biblical scholar who lectured for many years at Trinity and All Hallows Colleges. Her present academic research project is a reading of the Fourth Gospel from an ecological perspective, for The Earth Bible Commentary, a multi-volume publication forthcoming from Sheffield Phoenix Press. She will be travelling through Lent with the Fourth Evangelist

Wednesday, 15th March: Boundary Crossings – A Reflection on John 4:1-42

Sr. Sheila Curran RSM

Sheila is the AMRI Justice Coordinator and holds an MA in Biblical Studies and Doctorate in Ministry from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. She will present some new challenges from the Samaritan Woman’s encounter with Jesus.

Wednesday, 22nd March: Reflections on Spirituality and Justice

Dr. Brian Dooney

Brian lectured in All Hallows College/DCU, specialising in English Literature and Adult Education. Among other programmes, he was involved in the MA in Applied Christian Spirituality and the MA in Leadership and Pastoral Care. Brian will explore the intersection of spirituality and justice.

Time: 10am-12noon

Location: Mercy International Centre, 64 Lower Baggot St. Dublin

Donation: €20 for the three mornings or €7.00 per session. This includes tea/coffee. Payment may be made by cash or cheques payable to the Conference of Religious of Ireland.

Booking is essential and closing date is the 6th March, by phone or email.
